The Format- The First Single

i can't stand to think about a heart so big it hurts like hell oh my god i gave my best for three whole years to end like this do you want to fall apart? i cant stop if you cant start
do you want to fall apart?
well i could if you cant try to fix what i've undone cuz i hate what i've become

*Chorus

you know me oh you think u do you just dont seem to see i been waiting all this time to be something i cant define so let's cause a scene
clap our hands and stomp our feet or something ya something i just gotta get myself over me i could stand to do without all the people i have left behind whats the point of going round when its a straight line baby straight straight line so lets make a list of who we need and its not much of anything make a list of who we need and we'll thro it away cuz we dont need anyone no we dont need anyone

*Chorus

to be something i cant define

You know the nite life is just not for me dont wanna go out and be on my own we leave for the city count me out cuz all this time is wastin it all while everything i've done

*Chorus 2 x
