This is how it should be done
Hit me

You've got to believe there's something inside of me
That makes me feel this way
You've got to believe that you're still a part of me
Today

But telling a tale cannot be like living it
No matter what you say
And talking of love cannot be like giving it
Away

I know and you know, the voices are calling
Now that I have you

Whatever in the world can I do
Now that I have you
Whoever in the world could say it's not true
Now that I have you

Pump up the bass

I wonder how much of our life is memory
Remember yesterday
I'm hoping to God you don't believe everything
I say

Remembering every part of our history
A year is like a day
You got to believe that things won't always be
This way

I know and you know, the voices are calling
The walls are falling
For my love and your love, I got to keep stalling
Now that I have you

Whatever in the world can I do
Now that I have you
Whoever in the world could say it's not true
Now that I have you

Now bust some like this

Now that I have you
Now that I have you
Now that I have you

Whatever in the world can I do
Now that I have you
Whoever in the world could say it's not true
Now that I have you

There's nothing in the world could get in the way
Now that I have you
So why do I keep saying not today
Now that I have you

Whatever in the world can I do
Now that I have you
Whoever in the world could say it's not true
Now that I have
