Tomorrow

Information Society
Day after day, I'm waiting
And I lie for you.
I'd die for you.
And it makes me laugh to think
That I ever heard you say
"I love you."
I might never see you again,
But I'll get along
'Cuz I'll always know
Tomorrow will have been just like today.
Tomorrow will have been, don't care what you say.
Night after night, you used me.
I'm afraid of you.
I hated you.
I want a chance to run
To get away,
I thought you knew.
I might never see you again,
But I'll get along
'Cuz I'll always know

Tomorrow will have been just like today.
Tomorrow will have been, don't care what they say.
My life would be right if you only knew,
I'd come back tomorrow to be with you.
Tomorrow will have been just like today.
Tomorrow will have been, don't care what they say.
My life would be right if you only knew,
I'd come back tomorrow to be with you.
