If you don't come Rescue me soon If you don't come Take me away soon

Twenty-nine poisons Try to keep my mind from you But only your sweet love Finds in me the cure

You ??? Forever my heart I belong to the stranger

A shot in the dark You cure me You still my trembling heart You cure me A shot in the dark You still me You cure my trembling heart You still me So wake up I'm wanting to go Far far away with you And maybe there We can lose our shadows

Twenty-nine poisons Try to keep my mind from you But only your sweet love Finds in me the cure

A shot in the dark You cure me You still my trembling heart You cure me A shot in the dark You cure me You still my trembling heart You cure me
