You shine with coals inside
Like diamond horseshoe
Dying for you now
Dying for you now

And when you move
You remind me of all things
Chaos and anarchy
Come warm me now
With your hot hands

I'll break like China cups
Falling to the sound of autumn leaves
???

And when the bullets lie
And when the daggers fly

I'll be there to watch
A panther to her prey
To deepen the wound in you
To find your heart again
To find your heart again
Keep you breathing

I'll break like China cups
Falling to the sound of autumn leaves
I'll break like China cups
Falling to the sound of autumn leaves
???
