Loss of your heart
You fall into danger
A hawksept boy
Two moons around him
I watch him break the dawn this morning

He's all I needed
He's all I've wanted

For a new day will rise
We meet the dawn with sleepless eyes
Don't we love
I trace the lines around your eyes
Try to recognize the signs
North wind is cold today
Ain't it love

This place I waited all day for you
Rainjacket pulled over your head

Your face is all agrain (?)
My lovers like the sun
He's come to warm me
Thaw this ice
It goes right through
To the core in me

For a new day will rise
We meet the dawn with sleepless eyes
Don't we love
I trace the places you have been in me
Come my love only you can
Thaw this ice to me now

And a new day has come
??? and forget about danger
