"Million Miles Away"

Friday night and I just got back
I had my eyes shut
Was dreaming bout the past

I thought about you while the radio played
Should of got moving
Some reason I stayed

I started drifting to a different place
I realized I was falling off the face of your world
And there was nothing left to bring me back.

I'm a million miles away
A million miles away
I'm a million miles away
And there was nothing left to bring me back today
Today

I took a ride, went downtown
The streets were empty, there's no one around
And all the faces we used to know
Gone from the places we used to go

I'm at the wrong end of the looking glass
I tried to hold on to the hands of the past, and you
and there was nothing left to bring me back

I'm a million miles away
A million miles away
I'm just a million miles away
And there's nothing left to bring me back today
Bring me back today
Bring me back today

I started drifting to a different place
Ohh
I realized, I was falling off the face of your world
There was nothing left to bring me back

I'm a million miles away

A million miles away
Ohh
I'm just a million miles away
And there's nothing left to bring me back today
Bring me back today
Bring me back today
Bring me back today
Bring me back today
