"State Of Abyssmal"

if i could be happier i would be twins there would be other love but him the hourglass surprises yet another day

i can't cope with no hope and no god and i'm i'm here to receive i have lost my faith before now i'm one with me
i'm one with me

must the hopeless man in ignorance sedate searching for the soul that once he had to pay if the stars of death believe it's time for me there would be no other love for me

and i'm down on my knees i had lost my faith before now i'm down on my knees
i'm one with me
