What would you say to me if I sold my soul
To the devil
Would you knel to me and deny
Yourself the effection
What would you say to me if I sold my soul
To the devil
If I ask you why confuse myself in corruption
I tried so too hard to try
Hardly try
What in the world what it's like to be stolen?
I was left in the dark feeling sorry and thank me
What in the world what it's like to be stolen?
What in the world did you do?
Why??????
