I have thought small one
And never forgot
People who work
In the prisons are perfect
And the people who live
In the prisons are not
Still all they're a part of it somewhere
In the heart of the blameless and the beautiful giant of time

Together asleep
We awake like children scared
Together we weep
Then we smile
Cause there is no gift
It's only sweet sweet connections
Moments of truth
That run ever so deep

Cause we're all here
A part of it somewhere
In the heart of the blameless and beautiful giant of
time
The giant of time
It's the giant of time
