Have we played these games too long
That tomorrow's come and gone
While we're waiting for a sign
We're distracted by our eyes

It's time to let it go
Forgetting what we know
We're letting God take control

We've gotta change
Gotta start a revolution in this place
We're not ashamed
Gonna sing, gonna shout
That's what I'm talking about, yeah

Do you feel the change?
There's a transformation taking place
We're not ashamed,
Gonna sing, gonna shout
This is a God revolution

You know it's time to take a stand
All across this land
The time is here, the time is now
We've gotta reach out somehow

And it's time to let it go
Forgetting what we know
We're letting God take control

We've gotta change
There's a revolution taking place
We're not ashamed
Gonna sing, gonna shout
That's what I'm talking about, yeah

Do you feel the change?
There's a transformation taking place
We're not ashamed
Gonna sing, gonna shout
This is a God revolution

We're letting go, take control
We're letting go, take control
We're letting go, take control
We're letting go, take control
Take, take, take, control
Take, take, take, control

We've gotta change
Gotta start a revolution in this place
We're not ashamed
Gonna sing, gonna shout
That's what I'm talking about, yeah

Revolution, revolution, revolution
Gonna sing, gonna shout this is a God revolution
This is a God revolution, oh yeah
A God revolution
