Chained to your mistakes and pleas and a life without consequence.
Beg for nothing less than comfort.
Is what I am saying sinking in?
Honestly emotion takes away from desperation and i cannot deny it.
Beat down in your despair.
Among the wise you feel alone.
No one could see this any differently.
Hold on and think this deal out.
Give me everything I want.
And I will be angel for a little while.
When I am satisfied with what I have I will go back to raising hell.
Run and hide.
