Chained to your mistakes
And pleas for a life without consequences
Beg for nothing less than comfort
Is what I'm saying sinking in?

Honestly, emotion separates from desperation
And I cannot deny it
Honestly, emotion separates from desperation
And I cannot deny it

Beat down in your despair
Among the wise you feel alone
Down in your despair
Among the wise you feel alone

No one could see this any differently
Hold on and check this deal out

Give me everything I want
And I'll be an angel for a little while
When I'm satisfied with what I have
I'll go back to raising hell

Honestly, emotion separates from desperation
And I cannot deny it
Honestly, emotion separates from desperation
And I cannot deny it

Beat down in your despair
Among the wise you feel alone
Down in your despair
Among the wise you feel alone

No one could see this any differently
Hold on and check this deal out
Run and hide
Run and hide
