my soul floats, after death but where is heaven now?! no golden gates, between clouds no angel-harp harmonies unconsciously i realize the house of god stayes hidden they promissed me eternal life how could it be a lie?!

i feel the presents near me of thousand souls or more i sence the desperation of souls all been betraeyd drifting on the waves of sadness our souls seek eternal peace there's only darkness on our way lost in the caverns of time where is the paradise promised for how could i've been betrayed where is the place of eternal peace where are the golden gates
