From the womb of
Darkness and fear
Facing the world of
Agony and fear
Your conscienceness
Slipping away
Never to see
The light of day
No more breathing
No sense of life
Time to decay
Born with the innocence
Of a child
Died with the knowledge
Of pain. Pain!
Leave the world of mankind
Step out the world of death
Uncertainty leaving behind
Enjoy the sleep of the mind
Stillborn... Stillborn!
Live... in the land of death

More living than living instead

Secure in this world you see

Living in certainty

You see their greed

That you never feel

Life without soul

You see their badge

That you will never need

Their voice of death will call

Stillborn
