A revolution is not a party
Won't be seen on colour TV
Going to upset some 'o' them plan
Using ya very own weapon
Where's Captain Ginnalship
We want to know
Don't try giving us the slip
Won't let you go
For every lie told
Going to pick another bone
Return the old gold
Cause what you don't know own ya don't own

Chorus

Show you hands if you want to change your situation
Don't look as if ya think it strange to take a stand
For every lie ya told to pick another bone
Return the old gold, what ya don't own ya don't own

Chorus

Wher's Captain Ginnalship
We want to know
Don't try giving us the slip
Won't let you go
Foe evry Ayatolla
Going to pick anther bone
Return the old gold
Cause what ya don't own
ya don't own

(Mutaburuka:)

Now I jus took a look inna ma mind and I shiver and shook when I find That the cause of the wars in this time is the man with the triple six as his sign... hey
