Your path lies through Uncertainty
Warrior without aim, was wanting rewards
Innocent mind draws false reality
In this awful world of ruined dreams
You must die!..
The doubts grow into the Fears
And Fear became your first natural perfidious foe...
Appealing to mind to dispel the fear
you find Lucidity
Blinded by second foe
Like thumping bird in the cage
You're swallowed in attempts
To connect the cause and effect

You should realize:
It's only mistake
Point before eyes
Incompleted stay
It will be real Force!..Rule it
Dictate the law
Ally in your hand
You met the third enemy
Tempting to yield
Found only the cruelty
Rabid malign assassin machine to kill!
If you get comprehension
Strength is a load on your fate
So, you win and come to inevitable
Your Old Age...
