"...And The Promise Of The Truth"

Into the sea, the shining sea
You were taken away from me
So, so far away
As our good son set today

Is there a better way?

In these memories we'll be forever
Safe from the world we'll see

If we stand now together
I'll give my heart
For the promise of the truth
It's now or never
I'll give my life
When there's nothing left to lose

At any price we're lost
Paid more than was the cost
For freedom we send our own
Into the distance
Lights unknown

Nothing is worth this now
