Push me over the edges
Suffocating the senses
You strip me defenseless, I know you
Images reflected
Im raped and molested, touched by you
Perception over reality
And what we see is not always what we see
Deeper inside
Youll find your eyes lie, judge not this time

Alone

Distorted dreams in the silence
No vital signs just the violence
Tortured frame in the empty
Scars on my body just ghosts to remind me
I burn

Still reflection disturbs you
Twin perception unnerves you
Slit in two
Beautiful brutality
Self-inflicted these cuts my company
Opposite sides of this coin
Try both sides
Im yours youre mine

Alone

You scream like a symphony
Wicked trick has left me in agony
Your malfunction is needing
Vertical scars and proof of the bleeding
You burn

Your twin with you
Within the burning
I am your twin
With you within alone
