Verse 1

It was late night
The plan was cheddar, mission impossible Meetin' with my apostles so we can spread like the gospel do
My thoughts maniacal
But at the same time, barbarian, man We got minds like aliens but they portray us in the wrongest manner
That's why we come off like the criminals
That's why I keep close contention with my habituals My earthly status maintains the baddest, but in beauracracy Man, they stoppin' me from reachin' what's written in prophecies
Stoppin' me from the get-go, got me wantin' to let go My mind's intent, though
But it took more to perfect, so
If I could, I'd have my skull encased in anemantium
The prophet said he would come last and I came right after them

Chorus (x2)

I wonder if there's an over and under beneath me Did earth decieve me
You can listen but don't believe me
'Cause the fact of the matter It's more chit than chatter And before your cake blows, you gotta mix up the batter

Verse 2

We broke night
Everybody was drunk, so I spoke light Fuck the trife, the name of this song is "Life" I'm tellin' like tattlin', but they ain't listenin', they babblin'
Others stay battlin', while on the low the snakes is rattlin'

And water paddlin', they got me swimmin' towards infinity
Tryin' to put me under but my challas took a fit for me Hittin' me heavily, steadily flowin' like a faucet Gurglin' got me jumpin' over hurdles, thought I lost it, see
'Cause evil seems to be attracted to the opposite That's why I chill with a smirk and laugh at my conglomerates

Chorus (x2)

Verse 3

At first I wrote this verse to enlighten the slumberin'
Had time to burn like lumber and livin' life had me wonderin'
All sorts of situations like facin' mental insanity Lyrics were a plan to see If the world could understand the three levels of lyrical lavishness
You say I'm fabulous, they say I'm fabulous But hey, I'm just used to havin' this So remember the name Thunder, 'cause you're gonna hear it a lot Got more cock than a glock with more cuts than barber shops

Chorus (x2)
