Your life is so much sorrow
Let me take one moment of your pain
You have died a million times over
Who would comprehend the misery of life's game
So come, let's share of life's treasures
We'll live a life of passion undisturbed by shame
What you require, I offer with pleasure and Let's fall laughing, tumbling in vermillion rain

Come into my life
My Prince of Shadows (3x)
Come take my life

My heart shall know of no other
Within your arms I feel strangely serene
All those lives you've seen rise, mature and die

Who else could say that they've seen the sights you've seen
The world shall show us such wonders
I'll cast my net into the Sea of Dreams
And so, my love, I give you my life blood
And disregard the hollow life that's been

Come into my life
My Prince of Shadows (3x)
Come take my life
