One two one two three one go four two They're angels on my shoulder and I would kill them if I could.
B-B-B-because I have the greatest dream that I've ever had
And they're laughing, oh they're laughing at me
And It's a great idea to settle scores when We're sorry it's just a joke and I'm starting to get the punchline.
We're sorry It's just a joke and I'm starting to get the
punchline.
We said our goodbyes to the cast of spies and oh
they're laughing at me
B-B-B-because I have the greatest thing that I've ever seen.

And It's a great idea to settle scores when We're sorry it's just a joke and I'm starting to get the
punchline.
We're sorry It's just a joke and I'm starting to get the
punchline.
We are sorry, We don't know why
We are sorry, We don't know why, we don't know why We're sorry it's just a joke and I'm starting to get the
punchline.
We're sorry It's just a joke and I'm starting to get the punchline now.
