I just can't say that I blame you
For buying into it all.
I was truly famous
The day I lost it all.
Don't, Don't trust the Atlantic.
Look what it's done to me.
Don't, Don't trust the Atlantic.
She's not what she used to be.
I'm on your side.
So, Don't forget to hold on, hold on.
Cause good times are on the rise.
Good times are on the rise.
I just rediscovered
What I've been doing here all along.
I thought that I could take it,
But I found out I was all alone.
So Don't, Don't make that promise.
The one you know you can't keep.
Don't, Don't trust the Atlantic.
Look what it's done to me.
I'm on your side.
So, Don't forget to hold on, hold on.
Cause good times are on the rise.
Good times are on the rise.
I'm on your side.
So, Don't forget to hold on, hold on.
Cause good times are on the rise.
Good times are on the rise.
Hold on, Hold on.
Cause good times are on the rise.
Good times are on the rise.
