

Inme "Her Mask"

Visit "Her Mask" on MotoLyrics.com

I could cry, my time has come and I am stupid and
forever sad,
Is it God telling me to go away,
Is it God telling me to leave this place,
But I thought I could combine with you,
And I need you all the time,
And I thought it was ok with you,
Her mask is in my dreams at night,
But I thought I could escape with you,

I could cry, my time has come and I am stupid and
forever sad,
I could cry, my time has come and I am stupid forever,
You amaze me more than you could know,
And I need you all the time,
Laying stars you make me dream of bliss,
And I've loved you all the time
