"I Will Honour You"

I'm kinda numb without you, I've got the photos out, I can't control myself
I'm kinda lost without you, please refill my drink before I say farewell

I wish that I was as strong as you, a hero in my heart
A gentleman at all costs, you made living such an art Together, you kept us quite sure, sure that we belonged
A loving ghost, watch over her and through the storm you'll sail

I will honour you, I will praise you
I will always value everything you taught me

I'm kinda similar to you, I will use your name when it's my turn I'm kinda cold without you, I cannot swallow my, my saliva

I wish that I was as strong as you, a hero in my heart
A gentleman at all costs, you made living such an art Together, you kept us quite sure, sure that we
belonged
A loving ghost, watch over her and through the storm
you'll sail
I don't want to overreact any more and I don't want to live a lie
I won't ever be distracted by the ones who want me to fail

I will honour you, and I will praise you
I will always value everything you taught me

I'm holding on, holding on
And even though you're gone, I hope that you know what you really mean to me

I'm holding on, I'm holding on
And even though you're gone, I hope that you know

what you really mean to me

I wish that I was as strong as you, a hero in my heart
A gentleman at all costs, you made living such an art Together, you kept us quite sure, sure that we
belonged
A loving ghost, watch over her and through the storm
you'll sail
I don't want to overreact any more and I don't want to live a lie
I won't ever be distracted by the ones who want me to
fail

I will honour you, I will praise you
I will always value everything you taught me
