You are what poets write about and bleed themselves for Hold the moment I'll paint your picture while you're still here
'Cause you'll never be this beautiful again
I don't want to forget

Please love me now before I become disappointing
I am careless you're my innocent bystander
You make every moment feel like my first time
Now I've learned boys don't cry

I'm not your only author and this isn't your last song
I'm afraid of being scared and I don't speak if I'm wrong
I'm not your only author and this isn't your last song
wrong

I'm just an extra in your once passionate movie
The solution to my bitter tragic ending You're a brave soul
I wouldn't let me near myself
I can't thank you enough

I'm not your only author and this isn't your last song
wrong
I'm not your only author and this isn't your last song
wrong
