When a day comes along,
I can feed it, make it go away,
Feed it, make it go away,
And it's all the same,
I am seeing everything again,
Seeing everything again,
My own stupid fantasy,
I can drink it and wash it all away,
Drink it, wash it all away,
And I don't need to breathe,
Because I'm tasting everything again,
Tasting,
You know we hate it all in here,
You know we hate it all in here,
You know we hate it all,
Because the times that we have are so hard,
My life feels 2D,
I just swim through my aquarium,

Swim through my aquarium,
Licking all my wounds,
I'm bleeding eternally for you,
Bleeding,
I don't want to be in this life,
Because the times that I have make me throw it all
away,
Slave to my addiction,
Close my eye's and meditate my death,
Have I anything left?
The wound has left a scar,
But I still breathe just to be with you,
Still breathe,
I don't want to be in this life,
Because the times that I have make me throw it all
away,
I don't want to be in this life.
