in my life everything is alright
everything is alright
everything is alright
yeah
everything is alright
everything is alright
yeah

when im really high dont know why
in my dreams, in my life time is passing little bit fast when life goes bad
i dont know where to hide, where to go i dont really care about the past (now i say) oh i fall in love with your body fall in love (i say) oh i fall in love i love you and i mean it

everything is alright

everything is alright
yeah
