Make money money
Make money money money
(Make money money
Make money money money)

[VERSE 1: Sugar Ray]

The money talks, and everything's about money, without a question
So if you're not holdin, then get to steppin Cause nowadays it's hard with no money to stay alive Some people might do anything, it goes with the will to survive
But just as long as your pockets are full of dough, it's all good
And that's the way it is inside the hood My mind is on my money, yo, and I don't have a second to waste
I'm workin hard tryin to save and fill up my safe Before I die, I want a mansion and a Lamborghini A bank account so fat that Donald Trump would wanna be me
I got my mind made up, and nothin's gonna change how I feel Cause ooh-wee, I love money

[VERSE 2: B.K.]

Yo, life ain't nothin but snitches and dough Ain't got no love for a snitch, but I love me some cash flow
I like to keep my pockets swollen My bank account stack real fat, and my little stash pot holdin
Cause yo, I'm all about ends Cause when I had no ends, I had no friends, and no type of skins
With no dollars I had to strive, I even tried (What?) To go out, and get me a 9 to 5
But now a brother got grands
And peoples be like fams
"Hey yo, B.K., yeah, that's my man!"
I guess that's how that shit goes

(Aight) But from the nine on I'ma let you know Yo, I'm gettin money

[VERSE 3: Sugar Ray]

They say that m-o-n-e-y's the root of all evil, but I can't tell

I know this brother now that's livin swell

He's got the finest women in the world you ever saw Ridin all on is dick and damn near knockin down his door

I guess that goes along with havin dough, and yo, it's funny

Cause no one never knew my man until he had some money

But now he drives a Lexus and he's got more bacon than Michael Jordan

So people treat him like he's important

And it's good to see that, cause I believe that

A person gettin lucci, get the props he deserves without feedback

But dig, be smart about the way you choose to use it

And spend your money wisely, or you could lose it

Yeah

Double X back in the house gettin g-money

You know what I'm sayin?

I'm Sugar Ray, And I wanna say peace

To my Strong Peoples the Coalition out there in Killtown

And we out
