"Passage To Eternity"

Visit "Passage To Eternity" on MotoLyrics.com

Dark and tearing...the sound of a world that irradiate my dimension

Melancholy and sadness...behind the veil of this old Earth without hope

This entity approaches me and grazes my life

Destiny attracts it to a new birth

Obscurity and anguish dissolve and with them the distance between the two bodies

A wake of wisdom and purity envelopes the celestial encounter to seal an ancient and arcane joining

The passage is open...with it the hope of all grief's end

My life spent in a moment and my wishes all broken

My false hopes are crumbled in the dust...this presence is finally gone

It will proceed with the comet and lets me alone with it's thick wake of tears and passions
