There is no end of what I feel inside
It's so far down I can't reach
But I want to know what this is and what it sees
I have been in pain forever and I do not care
I have killed and died and I do not care
I have seen shadows over everything
They made me scared
Their shade painted every inch of me
And I died there
Now I stand alone and I will not fall
Not even death will smother my call
Bloodied...Bruised...I will crawl
Not even death will smother my call

This is the Story of Union
This is the Story of Light
