You think that no one notices
You scream and no one listens
You are lost, my friend
You have forgotten (but I remember)

The plan is set so get down
You cannot deny the answer inside

This is not an obstacle
This is of no consequence
This is not a wall
This means nothing at all (because I remember)

Please now of all times don't hesitate
It's time. Pull the lever. Open up the gate.
Restless and awake. All of a sudden...Twist of Fate

I can see you. I can hear you. I will walk with you.
I remember.
