Our muted capabilities ready themselves
Sparking the strands
This is an emergency broadcast
Dawning on us after the fact

Reset
Reset
Override
Override

Climbing the staircase inside
All attempts and efforts align Repeating to the sky...

No profit in the cure
This is how we operate
No profit in the cure
This lab was burned down by the FDA

Sponsored and bribed puppets put bandaids on the rust
These barking dogs will never speak for us
This explosive trial and error experiment is burning...
Burning the scars away

We're going to burn this old house down
We're going to leave this place behind
We're going to burn this old house down
We're going to leave this place behind

Coming down from the cross
Humanity as a child
Build charge
Send this home
The conch calls out and answers the drum
New ground is what we stand on

Wake up
Wake up
We're alive
Victory's in the air tonight

There's a wall of charity between us and the dying
There's a corrupt policy
There's a circle of politicians
There's armies upon armies
Between us

There is an undying spirit
There is frustrated love
There is a bond that can never be broken
There is life, victory and resolve
Between us
