In our eyes this is rage
No apologies can return
The progress that's been erased
Retribution's on it's way
Tonight

The Lion awaits and meets his prey
Imagination sets the stage
For the climax of all lives
There's still time left to override
Tonight

It's time to foil these plans
And fuel the fires of reverance
Ignite this intent and learn to live again

Sing us a song
Sing us a song

Our force is beyond reckoning!
It is beyond the paradigms of attack!
We're here to pull the plug on the highjackers
And take our evolution back!
Sing the song!
On and on!
Sing the song!
On and on!

THIS IS IT
Open you eyes to the living
THIS IS IT
Open your eyes to the living
YES THIS IS IT
Open your eyes to the living
YES THIS IS IT
Open your eyes to the living

There's one more chance to survive
It's tonight
