Something she said to me last night,
Something she said to me.
I saw the sunrise over my daddy's grave
And I ate some rice and cheese today.
Something she said to me last night,
Something she said to me,
She been talking behind my back again,
This time she's gonna bleed.
Something she said to me last night,
Something she said to me,
I saw the sunrise over my daddy's grave,
And I ate some rice and cheese today.
Something she said to me last night,
Something she said to me,
She been talking behind my back again,
This time she's gonna bleed.
Something she said to me last night,
Something she said to me,
When I kick her in the knee she goes out the door,
I just know she'll be back for more
