Take me
Break me
Tell me a good one
And maybe i'll cry
Go with me
Show me
And maybe i'll die

Lately i've been dancing in ceiling fans
Into the kitchen, and out the back gate
Well I know it sounds strange
But It could be the other way
Round to the ground where I know I must stay

Take me
Break me
Tell me a good one
And maybe i'll cry
Go with me
Show me
Tell me a good one
And maybe i'll die

Lately i've been dancing in ceiling fans
Circled in secrets and playing a game
Well I know it sounds strange
But It could be the other way
Round in a town where they don't know your name
