you remember me from a better time infatuation with each other could summarize all this is tied to the love the love you had assumed would never die I can't remember what I had said something reminiscent of a relationship it was easier to lack the truth then tell you how i feel but i will surround your heart with lies and its a heavy burden on me baby heavy burden I have never felt before stay with me

I remember you from a better time conversation saturated with telling lies all this comes back to the love the love I spoke with honest and pure eyes now I remember what I had done something meaningful to get you and fall in love it was easier to tell you everything you want to hear but I will surround your heart with lies and it's a heavy burden on me baby a heavy burden I have never felt before sit back, relax, recover a fine time for me to mention you get down, regret and wonder who really ever tells the truth

a fine time for me forgetting you
get down, regret and wonder

I will surround your heart with lies
and it's a heavy burden on me baby a heavy burden I have never a heavy burden on me baby a heavy burden that will always stay with me that will always stay with me

until the end
until the end
until the end
until the end
until the end
until the end
until the end
until the end
until the end
until the end
