Stare into the sun
To see the face for once
All the weakness shows
Too tired to lift the arm
That hold onto the star
That watch me as I sleep

I wanna believe in someone
I wanna believe in something
I wanna believe that I can love again
I wanna believe in someone
I wanna believe in something
I wanna believe that I can love again

The fire came and went
Took everything away
The brusies never heal
I try to take a breath
To say what wasn't said
But there is nothing left of me now, there's is nothing left.

Repeat.
I wanna believe in someone
I wanna believe in something
I wanna believe that I can love again
I wanna believe in someone
I wanna believe in something
I wanna believe in love again
