"Sorry And Glad Together"

This flurry of plans is over, over
And I'm sorry and glad together

Our bustling house is sane now, sane now
And I'm sorry and glad together

Didn't it go by so quickly, Mary?
I am missing our sewing in secret
Making up his holiday

It's finally come round
It's been a long time, a long time
And I'm sorry and glad together now

Now we watch out of doors for May
And the travels of summer ahead with
What will we bring?

Thoughts of trains, thoughts of sea
Will they come?
And what will we say?

How possible everything is in this wondering
Endless wait and how sure is joy and safe
In May I will say, "I am sorry and glad together now"
