How many times
Should I wonder
How many times
Should I go astray
You have to understand
You have to understand it
How many roads
Lead to freedom
How many roads
Lead to Ignorance
You have to understand
You have to understand it
You have to understand
You have to understand me
People fly they fly so high
When they can't deal with things in life
People try they try so hard still they wonder why I'm through What's the reward for faked honesty
Stardom
And the american dream
Adio amanti mio
You have to understand
You have to understand me
