(K-Dee , PT Lauren)

Sugar makes me happy , so I cannot see
Every single moran throwing dirt on me
I'll change all these clothes and loose my head
There's sugar waiting in my bed
I'm looking little blue , but turning red
So focus on the face , it's not alive
But just a secret gesture-hive
Hand in hand with a little girl I'll waste her day
The naughty world made a modest man out of me anyway
Steel all I have , I don't care at all:
Efficient way to smash the doll
And nothing's worse than climbing on the wall
So if you really want me , here I am:
Your own goddamn superman
I'm worried , I'm breathtakingly sorry
For stealing your sensational glory
I need your face , your head
Good night , they're the sugar of my bed
Sugar makes me happy , so I wrapped it up
In Supersonic thought I mean , I blew the top
Change all your friends for a day in bed
The other part of you'll be red
But never major blue , you're turning dead
