(K-Dee , PT Lauren)

I never kept those sweet pretty things over my head

I never wanted to paint my bed to ugly red

I?m silly instead

I really wanted to make you cry for me

I?m really good for , not hard to see

That I wanted so

Badly to kill you for it

Abandon you , just ?cause you taught me it

It?s so funny to watch you come clean

Shivering , I know that I?m too mean ,it?s not supposed to be seen

You really wanted to take your head over my heels

You never waited forever for me

Now it reveals that I wanted so badly to kill you for it
