(PT Lauren , K-Dee)

Just another day in a rotten world, you say

Man , I must be gay

'Cause I'm so in love with myself all the day

Look , the little man's getting away

I'm looking fine and I feel ok

Don't teach me to whyne and please don't teach me to pray

For insecurity

There's nothing to be learned from modesty

I'm Jack , I'm Jeff , I'm Jim , I'm John Doe

I'm Jill , I'm Kate , I'm Jane

See I'm a 007 , the x-mas-me , a candy bar filled with the trendy thing in heaven

The dirty word's turning absurd , don't look at me

I'd like to think I'm not much more than you

What should I do?

Because I really am and I think you all know it too

Look , the little man is fitting the shoe

It's never me who you wanna move

Don't make me to see and please don't make me review

Your insecurity

There's nothing to be gained from modesty

Well , I'm not that sure anymore if I have a bottom line

Man , if there's anything at all

I want you to have faith in me

So I can bore another goddamn whore
