Good times are all ok , just think about the day
When odd rhymes make everything ok
Now whatcha gonna say
'Cause damn if I don't know you're the same by just one look at you
Don't you wanna do good , I know you really do
Now here I go , the angel with the devil-hair
Take your seat and watch me cheat
I'm fundayman , look at me
Look at me I'm all you see
Goddamn , I'm ok , I'm ok and all the way
I'm fundayman , who are you
Who are you , you don't fit the shoe
True and , very rude

It's so very good that I'm understood
Obey me , you shouldn't take that turn I cannot see Don't judge me , 'cause I really need your heart Now what's it gonna be 'Cause damn if I don't know it's ok , ok I turn away
Dropping every single thing I should not do today
Now here I go , I'm the angel with the devil-hair
Take your seat and watch me cheat
Though I'm great I know it's not for me to help you when it aches
I'm so high that it rains , oh yeah man don't change things when they're sane
