Searing the sight of your relief, now seize the day Tomorrow your own cries will fill the hall, without a honesty

I am a saint bleeding you all
I am a saint, fuck of all or fall

Demons in fall of uncertainty, flustered of mine Sickering unleashed by my pervy presage for you to die

Now my love, you will crie in pain
In front of your eyes they'll die! I'll take reign!

Chaos will die!
I am daring the devil!

Abandoned in your own case a spring of blood
Your souls I'll drown in your own flood, you'll surrender

I am a saint bleeding you all
I am a saint, fuck of all or fall
