MotoLyrics

Here I stand and you don't see my fear I hear you screaming for more, more, more I know what your want I know how you feel The loud is what you're living for

Raise your fists tonight no boundaries Join this time cigarettes 'n' alocohol Never stop, always on and on Never stop to scream for rock'n'roll

Beware and stay what your are Beware the mania Beware and stay what you are You are Insania

All the time since the day that I was born My behavior was a misery Kicks aside my life was just a fall No place for me in this society No, never stop we're playin' through the night No once will stop us and no one will take our force
