"Forget My Dreams"

Visit "Forget My Dreams" on MotoLyrics.com

Nothing before today, maybe one life without a sunshine.
Yesterday I didn't lose anything to say,
nothing to do today.

My life begins to change but I don't care.
My mind begins to think that I want you!

The blind sees beyond,
but I can't, I forget my dreams...

Only one chance for me, there's only you,

you know that you can help me.
My state of sadness, I lay upon my bed,
I'd like to remember all my past...

And I remember that I've got a dream,
The dream of happiness!

The blind sees beyond,
but I can't, I forget my dreams...
