"Through The Darkness"

Visit "Through The Darkness" on MotoLyrics.com

The sky is grey like the stone
that I feel on my heart,
But the skys consious that it is falling down
with the moonlight.

Im searching the half of my life,
Im breaking the barriers of time,
The time that control the sadness of the gray sky.

I walk through the darkness
But I live on and on...
I walk through the darkness.
Your heart is grey like a stone.
Now my rainbow is coloring all the sky
and your heart, too.

Im searching the half of my heart,
I can find your eyes in the blue sky,
Without the time and the sadness well live forever.

I walk through the darkness
But I live on and on...
I walk through the darkness.
