Didn't you wanna hear me cry out loud
Would it turn your head inside out
What would it do you you? would you fall to your knees
Who thought that I was going to say please
You broke me down, I've never felt so low
Now what? where do I go
I'm alone, on my own
I'm dis owned, bring this home.

Is this something you will live to regret?
Is this your biggest mistake yet?
Do you crumble when you look into my eyes
You're a beautiful disguise

As days go by I'm missing you
Do you care what I go through?
I'll give you time while I burn
But inside my stomach turns
Years go by and I'll see you
I'll remember the pain you put me through
But it's ok because I'm strong
I've moved on, so long

Is this something you will live to regret?
Is this your biggest mistake yet?
Do you crumble when you look into my eyes
You're a beautiful disguise

Is this something you will live to regret?
Is this your biggest mistake yet?
Do you crumble when you look into my eyes
You're a beautiful disguise

Is this something you will live to regret?
Is this your biggest mistake yet?
Do you crumble when you look into my eyes
You're a beautiful disguise
