All of us came into the world
With a chain around the neck
At the end of which we swing
Sooner or later
Welcome to the land of the blissful slaves
Here the braves pass their life digging their graves
You will die as you were born
Crying in shit and blood
Dream your life is just a dream
Set your soul free/erase your mind
Dive into the cold abyss
Where the foundations of conscience collapse
Dream your life is just a dream
Leave the sun to the damned blinds
The darkened God is bleeding...
In his blood lies your forgotten life
